

Five Places to Celebrate Canada's 150th Birthday

BY CAROLYN B. HELLER ON FEBRUARY 3, 2017

Canada is turning 150 this year, celebrating the anniversary of the country's 1867 founding with a variety of special events from coast to coast. For anyone coming to Canada in 2017 for the 150th festivities, we've rounded up several of our favorite hotels where you might enjoy the celebrations.

Watermark Beach Resort, Osoyoos, BC

Suppose you want to get away to Canada, but you're thinking more lakeside escape than big birthday bash. Then consider British Columbia's Okanagan wine region. Five hours' drive east of Vancouver, the sunny and mild Okanagan Valley stretches along a string of lakes, and it's home to more than 200 wineries.

An excellent choice for a lakeside holiday is the Watermark Beach Resort, a 153-suite condo resort in the South Okanagan town of Osoyoos. Read our full review here: Watermark Beach Resort.

Happy birthday, Canada! You look pretty good for 150.
